From your experience, what are the greatest strengths of WKU counseling graduates and/or interns?

Their knowledge base, their drive for excellence, their passion, their thirst for knowledge, their connection with the professors and each other in the program.

Great knowledge and skills. Great support provided for students.

theory, work=ethic

Thoroughness Knowledge

The intern I worked with was highly skilled and was willing to complete task with urgency. She was able to relate to the patients and provided good listening skills and empathy. She was not afraid to ask questions and was willing to grow and to take on new challenges.

Counseling skills learned

WKU students are better prepared to initially meet with clients, have good working knowledge of theories, extremely ethical and professional.

balance of clinical skills, interpersonal collegiality, work ethic

Counseling graduates are hard working and appear to understand counseling concepts.

Q5 - What improvements would you like to see regarding WKU counseling graduates and/or interns overall?

What improvements would you like to see regarding WKU counseling graduates and/or interns overall?

None. You all have done a fantastic job.

Nothing I can think of at the moment.

more focus on note writing and treatment planning

Continued positive working relationship

I think you all are doing a good job and are right on point.

More interns

It would be helpful to help students learn more about how insurance operates, how to develop treatment plans with different methods and help them to better understand the LPCA process.

advance understanding of specific theories, exposure to specialization topics. however, such requests are likely challenging to fit within the existing 60 hour requirement set by CACREP

I would like to see something to help with graduates with self-care.
