

PATTI MINTER

House of Representatives 2019-present

Patti Minter is the first woman elected to the General Assembly from Warren County. A candidate for re-election in 2020, Minter has pledged to continue fighting for public schools and reliable pensions. To date, she has championed legislation on limiting the cost of insulin, protecting those with pre-existing conditions seeking healthcare coverage, and the banning of gay conversion therapy.