WKU COLONNADE PROGRAM: WAYS OF KNOWING & UNDERSTANDING

The WKU Colonnade Program is a new general education program designed for students entering Fall 2014 and after. Students entering prior to Fall 2014 may choose between the former general education curriculum and Colonnade Program.

The 39 credit hour WKU Colonnade Program seeks to embody the following goals and learning outcomes:

1. Knowledge of human cultures and the physical and natural world, including
   a. An informed acquaintance with major achievements in the arts and the humanities;
   b. An appreciation of the complexity and variety of the world's cultures;
   c. An understanding of the scientific method and a knowledge of natural science and its relevance in our lives;
   D. A historical perspective and an understanding of connections between past and present.

2. Intellectual and practical skills, including
   a. The capacity for critical and logical thinking;
   b. Proficiency in reading, writing, and speaking;
   c. The ability to understand and apply mathematical skills and concepts.

3. Personal and social responsibility, including
   a. An understanding of society and human behavior;
   b. An understanding of factors that enhance health, well-being, and quality of life.

4. Integrative Learning, including
   Synthesis and advanced accomplishments across general and specialized studies.

All coursework is categorized as General Education coursework and consists of courses in 3 categories. Courses with an approved equivalency, including those with a "C" suffix, will fulfill the appropriate requirement.

This course list does not include all approved Colonnade courses, but instead identifies 2016 Summer Sessions courses that are available online and fulfill Colonnade requirements. Options include:

- Campus location "web" refers to courses that are term based online classes that have specific start and end dates.
- Campus location "on demand" refers to courses that you can start any day of the year and finish in as little as 7 weeks. Course delivery formats include online, print and email.

For a complete list of approved courses, visit: www.wku.edu/colonnade.
