

Academic Quality Committee Reports

November 7, 2019

The Academic Quality Committee met on Thursday, November 7, 2019 in Cherry Hall 202. Senators in attendance were:

David Serafini, Chair
Aquesha Daniels
Heather Strode
Jean Snavley
Sara McCaslin
James Gary
Quentin Hollis
Mark Schafer (attended via Skype)

Guests:

Michelle Trawick
Marco Dumancic
Beth Laves

Meeting was called to order at 2:32

Michelle Trawick gave a presentation and answered questions from the working group on Assurance of Student Learning Outcomes.

Marco Dumancic and Beth Laves gave a report to the Committee and took questions regarding new online learning quality assessment for faculty as they develop and revise courses delivered in that fashion.

Meeting was adjourned at 3:47.

The next regularly scheduled meeting, December 5, 2019, was cancelled owing to the end of the semester and finals week. Updates were made via email.

January 23, 2020

Members of the Academic Quality and Faculty Welfare Committees met prior to the January Senate meeting to discuss and begin to formulate a plan of action and response to Kentucky Statute 164.348 Campus Free Speech Protection. It was agreed that an ad hoc committee comprised of members of both would act as a working group to craft a statement for eventual presentation to the Senate as a whole.