- Interested parties are able to check out books from the Lending Library for 8-week intervals. Should you require more time, please ask for an extension at literacy.clinic@wku.edu.
- All books will be returned to the WKU Literacy Clinic in good condition. Any books that have ripped pages, writing on the pages, lost covers, or other such damage will be replaced by the individual who checked them out of the Lending Library.
- After submission of a book request, please allow one week for a response. If you do not hear back within that time period, please email literacy.clinic@wku.edu.
- Once you receive confirmation that your books have been checked out, you may pick them up at the School of Teacher Education office in 1092 Gary Ransdell Hall.
- Items will be distributed on a first come first serve basis. If you are interested in reserving a text set for future use that is currently checked out, please email literacy.clinic@wku.edu to make that request.
- It is the responsibility of the individual who checks items out of the Lending Library to return them to the School of Teacher Education office within 8 weeks of check-out. Please be mindful of other teachers and their interest in use of texts. Turning texts in by the due date will allow other teachers and students to use them. Failure to return books within the 8-week window will result in loss of privileges for the teacher who checked out the books.
